Department of the Interior,

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

WASHINGTON, December 12th, 1881.

A. London Snowden,
Superintendent of Mint
Philadelphia, Penn.

Sir

A friend of mine in the west desire to get as many "proof sets" of American coins, (silver &c,) as he can; by "proof sets," he means: 1 standard dollar, 1 trade dollar, 1 half dollar, 1 quarter dollar, 1 dime, 1 five cent, 1 three cent, 1 two cent and 1 one cent piece of each year, up to the present date and of as many years back, as possible. Will you please inform me, if I can have these coins, & for how many years back. Also a Garfield Memorial Medal, one of each size, gold & silver. If you will inform me, how many of the above coins I can have, & their cost, together with the cost of the Garfield medals, I will forward the amount.

Very respectfully

Edmund S. Wood

Chief of Finance Division, Indian Bureau.
